

INVITATION

to a webinar on Māori research

Join us in this exciting Tok stori...

The Wellington Southerlies

An OCIES VUW tok stori, convened and hosted by the School of Education at Victoria University of Wellington, Aotearoa New Zealand.

The WS tok stori focuses on the Oceania scholarship on orality and relationality, including emerging research on Talanoa, Tok Stori, Yarning and Kōrero.

Topic: “An iwi homeland: Country of the heart”

OCTOBER, 2021

05

11am-12noon, NZ daylight saving time

(Tonga/Samoa 11am-12noon | Fiji 10am-11am;
Sydney/Brisbane, 8am-9am; others please convert to local time)

Presenter:

- Dr Adreanne Ormond of Rōngomaiwahine, Ngāti Kahungunu and Ngāti Tūwharetoa. Te Herenga Waka Victoria University of Wellington, Aotearoa New Zealand
<https://www.wgtn.ac.nz/maori-hub/rangahau/researcher-profiles/dr-adreanne-ormond>

Respondents:

- Dr Seu'ula Johansson-Fua, Director of the USP Institute of Education, Tonga Campus, Tonga.
<https://www.usp.ac.fj/bio/dr-seuula-johansson-fua/>
- Dr Jani Wilson of Ngāti Awa, Ngā Puhī & the Mātaatua tribes of Aotearoa NZ. Te Rewa o Puanga at Massey University, Aotearoa New Zealand.
<https://www.massey.ac.nz/massey/expertise/profile.cfm?stref=961522>

Sign in details to participate:

Joining from PC, Mac, iOS or Android: <https://vuw.zoom.us/j/94649812176>

Pre-session preparation: As preparation, intending attendees are encouraged to read the article at this link.

See: <http://www.journal.mai.ac.nz/content/iwi-homeland-country-heart>

Participation: Open to all OCIES members, Vaka Pasifiki and all interested researchers, students, emerging scholars from the Pacific, Oceania region and globally.

The WS co-conveners: Dr Kabini Sanga, Dr Adreanne Ormond & Dr Martyn Reynolds

Further contact: Pine Southon (Pine.Southon@vuw.ac.nz)

PRESENTING

Dr Adreanne Ormond
Victoria University of Wellington

Dr Seu'ula Johansson Fua
IOE – The University of the South Pacific

Dr Jani Wilson
Massey University