Hosted by the Oceania Comparative and International Education Society and AARE SIG Global Contexts for Education

Join us for a day of discussion, learning and networking about comparative and international education (CIE) research. Invited speakers include Professor Marcia McKenzie, Professor of Global Studies, MGSE and Director of the Sustainability and Education Policy Network; and Dr. Jason Beech, Senior Lecturer, School of Education, Culture & Society, Monash University and Director of UNESCO Chair in Education for Global Citizenship and Sustainability.

We welcome students, researchers and practitioners interested in the intersections of education, environment, sustainable development and the study of education in global contexts.

For those able to be in Melbourne, we look forward to hosting you in person at Graduate House, University of Melbourne, 220 Leicester Street, Carlton, for a fully catered event. For those attending in person, you will need to show evidence that you are fully vaccinated against COVID-19 on your arrival at Graduate House. Those unable to attend in person can participate in sessions online via Zoom. For the Zoom link for all sessions click here or the zoom meeting ID is: 82810669420.
